

Preferred Securities Fund

Uncover the Benefits of Return, Income & Diversification

Q1 2022

Important Notes

1. The Principal Preferred Securities Fund ("Fund") will invest primarily in a portfolio of U.S. dollar denominated preferred securities and debt securities.
  2. The Fund's investments will be offered on markets listed in Appendix A to the Prospectus, although it is anticipated that the majority will be issued by U.S. issuers. Compared with a well-diversified fund, its concentration risk is relatively high and hence it might be more volatile than a well-diversified fund.
  3. Investment involves risk. There is no assurance on investment returns and you may not get back the amount originally invested.
  4. The investment decision is yours but you should not invest in this Fund unless the intermediary who sells it to you has advised you that it is suitable for you and explained how it is consistent with your investment objectives.
  5. You should not invest solely in reliance on this marketing material alone. You should read the Prospectus and the relevant Supplement(s) before investing including the Special Investment Considerations and Risks section of the Prospectus.
  6. In relation to A Class Income Units of the Fund, the dividends which may be distributed by such class of units may be paid effectively out of the capital of the Fund (i.e. making the distribution from gross income while charging all or part of the Fund's fees and expenses to capital), resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the Fund and an immediate reduction of the net asset value per unit of the Fund. Payment of dividends effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Dividend is not guaranteed.
- Target Yield refers to D2 Class Income Plus Units Q3 Target Yield, which is for reference only and subject to review every quarter and not guaranteed. Positive distribution yield does not imply positive return. Dividend is not guaranteed.

Fund Merits:

Preferred and Capital Securities provide investors with the opportunity for high current income and enhanced diversification without sacrificing quality

Historically lower default rates than other fixed income instruments

Managed by a highly specialized and experienced team

> What are Preferred and Capital Securities?

- Preferred and capital securities are fixed income assets, which generally rank junior to senior debt and bank loans, but senior to common stock, on a company's capital structure.
- In the event a company and the assets of the company are liquidated to pay off to the creditors, the investors who are more senior in the capital structure would expect to have priority over those in lower segments of the capital structure.

Capital Structure of Preferred and Capital Securities<sup>2</sup>

> What Companies Issue Preferred and Capital Securities?

- Preferred and capital securities invest primarily in investment-grade offerings from issuers; issuers include financial institutions, like banks, insurance and brokerage companies.
- Among which nearly 80% of issuers are financial institutions. Banks issue preferred and capital securities as an attractive complement to fulfill their capital requirements.

Issuer of Preferred and Capital Securities<sup>3</sup>

Banks Lloyds Banking Group / HSBC / Citigroup / Bank of America / PNC	50.7%
Insurance AXA / MetLife / ING	14.2%
Others Enel / AT&T / Emera / Verizon	35.1%

Merits of Preferred and Capital Securities

1. High Quality Credits<sup>4</sup>

- In the US Dollar Fixed Income market, preferred and capital securities is one of the asset classes with higher yields and credit ratings at the same time. Nearly 90% of the senior debt of preferred and capital securities issuers is investment-grade, making preferred and capital securities reasonably comparable to high grades.

2. Diversification

- Preferred and capital securities historically have had a low correlation<sup>5</sup> to other fixed-income and equity products in various market conditions, as shown in the table below.
- Investors can capture potential returns and stable yields throughout different economic cycles through a strategic allocation with preferred and capital securities.

3. Preferred Securities's Performance Comparing to Key Asset Classes Over the Past 10 Years<sup>7</sup>

- In 9 out of 12 periods, preferred securities performance is equal to or above listed asset classes median #.
- For example, when US-China Trade War escalated in 2018, preferred securities provided better downside protections than all listed equity asset classes. When the market recovered and boomed in 2019, preferred securities delivered more prominent returns than the other fixed income asset classes.

4. Lower Default Rates than Other Fixed Income Instruments

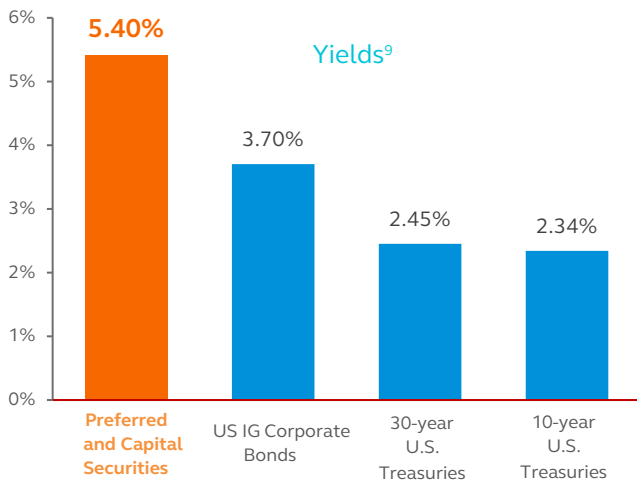

- Comparing with the high-yield bond market, preferred and capital securities historically have had lower default rates<sup>8</sup>. The issuers of preferred securities are usually corporates with stable financial status and therefore higher credit ratings.

Annual Default Rates (%) 2011-2020

	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	Average (2011-2020)

5. Potentially Higher Yields than Other Corporate Bonds

- The yield of the preferred and capital securities is 5.40%, which generates higher yields than 10-year U.S. Treasuries and investment grade corporate bonds.

6. Compelling Return with Much Less Volatility Relative to Equity

- Coupon premium offered due to subordination plus concentration to financial services sectors add up to a high total return at a volatility comparable to other fixed income instruments<sup>10</sup>.

> Why Principal Preferred Securities Fund?

1. Strong AUM Growth with a Long Track Record

- As the authorized preferred securities fund with more than 10 years of proven track record in Hong Kong, the asset size of the fund grew exponentially since launch in 2005, with more than 11 times over the past 10 years<sup>11</sup>.

2. High Credit Quality

- The fund possesses high credit quality with about 80%<sup>12</sup> rated investment grade.

3. Attractive Income Opportunities by Dividend Payout

- Preferred and capital securities offer the potential for higher yields<sup>13</sup> than corporate bonds and behave like fixed-income investment due to the amount of income they generate.

Dividend Record – Average annualized dividend rate for past 15 years is 5.1%<sup>14</sup>.

Record Year	Annual Dividend Rate	Record Year	Annual Dividend Rate	Record Year	Annual Dividend Rate

14. Calculation: Annualized yield =  $[(1 + \text{distribution per unit} / \text{Ex-Dividend Price})^{\text{distribution frequency}} - 1]$ , the annualized dividend yield is calculated based on the latest dividend distribution with dividend reinvested, and may be higher or lower than the actual annual dividend yield. Positive distribution yield does not imply positive return. For funds offering classes with a distribution feature, such classes aim at quarterly distribution as the case may be. Dividend rate is not guaranteed. Distributions may be paid from capital. Distribution policy: Quarterly dividend distribution, i.e. January, April, July and October (if any), but the policy is subject to the complete and absolute decision of the fund manager and there is no guarantee that a particular dividend policy will continue. The distribution yield here refers to A Income USD Class. A Income USD Class is for reference only. Target Yield refers to D2 Class Income Plus Units Q1 Target Yield, which is for reference only and subject to review every quarter and not guaranteed. Positive distribution yield does not imply positive return. Dividend is not guaranteed.
15. 2022 average annualized dividend rate is based on the distributions of A Income USD Class in January with dividend reinvested and may be different from the actual 2022 dividend yield. Dividend is not guaranteed.
